The year is 1518...

And the young King Henry is working towards an extraordinary goal: peace across Europe. In the interests of furthering mutual prosperity, he has proposed a non-aggression pact between all European nations. But until now, England has been seen as a rather small player on the global stage, and many are wary of signing a treaty championed by an insignificant and rather backwards nation. Chief among these detractors is Maximilian, the German Kaiser of the Holy Roman Empire.

Undaunted, Henry has invited Maximilian's ambassador to come to England and see its wonders for himself in the beautiful shire of Mt. Hope. Needless to say, the news has sent our good Lady Mayor into quite a state. With the aid of her newly appointed Master of Revels, who is wondering just what he's gotten himself into, she has turned the entire town into a beehive of frantic activity. From pirates to peasants, the Shire's population has devoted itself to becoming the model of a more 'modern' European village.

Will our fair Shire's festival day successfully dazzle the German ambassador? Well, it will certainly be entertaining to watch them try.

Emergency Medical Personnel are on-site throughout the festival day at the First Aid Station.
